Pursuing His presence is the great call on our lives. And it is our unbelievable privilege to share His glorious presence with a hurting world. In these pages, author and international speaker Jennifer Eivaz explains that you are called to make His presence known to those around you—to be an actual carrier of God's glory. Here is the inspiration you need to enter into intimate fellowship with the Spirit of God: experience healing and deliverance: pray for miracles that will change others' lives As you develop a deeper relationship with the Holy Spirit, you will become a host for God's presence in the darkest places. But miracles are not where His desires are focused. Paul Marc Goulet, senior pastor, International Church of Las Vegas Jennifer describes in plain language aspects of the spiritual realm that are often misunderstood or considered out of reach for the ordinary person, and she passionately challenges each of us to become a glory carrier. Words and imagery flowed with an intent to awaken and quicken you, the reader, on every page. The only exception is brief quotations in printed reviews. Without their support, I could not do what I do. Jennifer writes beautifully about this reality: I liken this to a very real wrestling match with a good God who deeply loves you, but whose very presence demands a transformation from you.
